NOTICE

Warm greetings from M.M.C. College. Hope you all had a wonderful Puja vacation and are now ready to start your academic activities with renewed energy.

Please be informed that our college is undergoing renovation to enhance our infrastructure and provide a better learning environment. However, this may cause some disruption of our regular class activities in the main building. Some classes may be relocated to alternative rooms, class timings may be adjusted temporarily, noise disturbance may be there and also there may be limited access to certain facilities like common rooms, corridors, college canteen. Updates will be shared through college website and notice board.

We appreciate your co-operation during this time.

Thank you for your understanding.
